

Annales Cathedrae MXMII-MMIII

1992-93 (Preparatory year)

“Trail run” seminar offered in the Department of History; five students write their theses on medieval topics

November Meeting of an international board at Erdőtarcsa to design an interdisciplinary medieval studies program

April Interdisciplinary Workshop: “Ethnicity: Concepts and Conflicts in Medieval Central Europe” (Annual 1993-1994, pp. 275-7); Second meeting of the Academic Board

April-May First interviews in Saint Petersburg, Sofia, Zagreb, Kiev, Moscow, Warsaw

May Participation in the Spoleto conference on medieval studies, organized by FIDEM (Ibid., pp. 269-74)

1993-94

September 40 students start the MA course

December Winter field trip: Western Hungary, Vienna, Heiligenkreuz, Bratislava (Ibid., pp. 56-9)

February Feasibility workshop: Byzantium and the Latin West (Ibid., pp. 278-9)

March Research project conference: “Women and Power in Medieval Central Europe” (Ibid., pp. 225-36 and East Central Europe/L'Europe de Centre-Est, 20-23 [1993-6], Pt. 1)

April Spring field trip: “Great Moravia,” Southern

Bohemia, Prague (Annual 1993-1994, pp. 60-5)

May MA program accredited by the University of the State of New York

July Participation in the First International Medieval Congress, Leeds

September 36 students graduate with MA, 4 with certificate of attendance; 10 admitted to second year scholarship in expectation of Ph.D. accreditation

1994-95

September 30 students start the MA course

February-April Visit of inspectors of the New York State Education Board regarding the Ph.D. program

May Spring field trip: Prague, Southern Bohemia, Austria (Ibid., pp. 21-2)

May Second workshop of the “Women and Power” research program (Ibid., pp. 88-91 and ECE, as above)

June 27 students graduate with MA, 3 with certificate of attendance, 10 admitted to the planned Ph.D. program in Medieval Studies at CEU

1995-96

September 31 students start the MA course

November Fall field trip: Vienna and Heiligenkreuz (Annual 1995-1996, p. 26)

February 20 Accreditation of the Ph.D. Program

February-March Public lecture series

“Encounters of East and West in Medieval Europe”

March International conference “Heremitae, Monachi, Fratres. The Interactions of Monastic Cultures in Medieval Europe” (Benedictine Abbey, Pannonhalma) (Ibid., pp. 109-10)

May Spring field trip: Prague, Southern Bohemia and Slovakia (Ibid., pp. 26-7)

June Interdisciplinary workshop “The Year 1000 in Europe” (Ibid., pp. 129-30)

June 22 students graduate with MA, 9 with certificate of attendance, 10 admitted to the Ph.D. program

July First Summer University of CEU, course on “Computing in Medieval Studies”

1996-97

August-September Fall field trip: Cracow and Lublin, participation in the Congress of the Commission Internationale d'Histoire Ecclésiastique Comparée on “Christianity in East Central Europe” (Annual 1996-1997, pp. 57; 161-2)

September 27 students start the MA course

October-November Public lecture series “Persons and Models. A Lecture Series on Medieval Culture”

October Workshop in memoriam Erik Fügedi organized by the “Nobility in Medieval Central Europe” research project (Ibid., pp. 141-3)

October Joint conference with Sofia State University on St Ivan of Rila and the monastic traditions in Medieval Europe (Ibid., p. 162)

November-December Public lecture series “Nomadic Peoples in East-Central Europe”

December International conference “The Hungarian Conquest and Europe” (Ibid., pp. 162-164)

April Interdisciplinary Workshop “Urban Culture in Late Medieval Europe” (Ibid., pp. 164-165)

May Teleconference organized with the International Congress on Medieval Studies, Kalama-zoo, on “The Future of Medieval Studies: East and West” (Ibid., pp. 166-172)

May Spring field trip: Croatia (Ibid., pp. 58-59)

June Named finalist in the award of the Hanna Arendt Prize (“Self-study” printed Ibid., pp. 17-51)

June Participation in an international conference in Rostock on “Lesser Nobility in Mecklenburg and in Central Europe” by the “Nobility in Medieval Central Europe” research project participants (Ibid., p. 144 and East Central Europe 29 [2002]: 131-248)

June 24 students graduate with MA, 3 with certificate of attendance, 11 admitted to the Ph.D. program

July Summer University Course on “The Caucasus: A Unique Meeting Point of Ancient Cultures” (Annual 1996-1997, pp. 157-60, and Annual 6 [2000]: 207-246)

July Summer University Course on “Cultural Heritage in Danger” (Annual 1996-1997, pp. 149-56)

1997-98

September 30 students start the MA course

October-May Public lecture series “Byzantium and the Rest of Europe” in memoriam Alexander Kazhdan (Annual 1997-1998, pp. 63-5)

November Workshop on “Computer Applications for the Study of Medieval Slavonic Texts” (Ibid., p. 197)

February Public defence of the Ph.D. dissertation of Stanko Andrić: first Ph.D. degree awarded by CEU (Ibid., pp.111-6)

February Second workshop of the “Nobility in Medieval Central Europe” research Project

February Workshop on “Patterns of Economic and Political Integration in Central and Southeast-Central Europe” (Ibid., pp. 198-9)

April Interdisciplinary Workshop on “Aspects of Courtly Culture in Late Medieval Europe” (Ibid., pp. 200-1)

April Spring field trip: Slovakia, Cracow and North-Eastern Hungary (Ibid., pp. 29-30)

June 27 students graduate with MA, 4 with certificate of attendance, 2 with Ph.D., 10 admitted to the Ph.D. program.

July Summer University Course on “Documentation and Reconstruction of Cultural Heritage” (Ibid., pp. 189-94)

1998-99

September 25 students start the MA course

October-May Public lecture series “Approaches to Medieval Manuscripts” (Annual 6 [1999]: 269-70)

February Interdisciplinary workshop on “Constructing and Deconstructing Frontiers” (Ibid.: 163-206) continued as “Expanding the Frontiers of Medieval Latin Christianity: The Crusades and the Military Orders.” Published as Zs. Hunyadi, J. Laszlovszky, ed., The Crusades and the Military Orders: Expanding the Frontiers of Medieval Latin Christianity. CEU Medievalia 1. (CEU Press: Budapest, 2001)

April Spring field trip: Slovakia and Northern Hungary (Annual 6 [2000]: 262-3)

June 25 students graduate with MA, 1 with Ph.D., 15 admitted to the Ph.D. program

July Summer University course on “The Many Cultural Centers of the Early Medieval Oikumene. Shifting Centers, Encounters, Barriers, Borderline Conditions”

August Conference on “Cults of Early Christian Saints from Central and South-Eastern Europe” co-organized with three Bulgarian universities

1999-2000

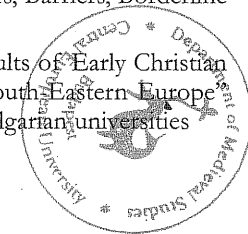

September 25 students start the MA course

November Workshop of the Visual Resources Research Program (Medieval News 1.2 [April 2000]: 2)

January Interdisciplinary workshop on “National Heritage, World Heritage, Medievalism” (Ibid.: 1)

April Spring field trip: Transylvania and Moldavia (Annual 7 [2001]: 248-9)

June 21 students graduate with MA, 3 with certificate of attendance, 3 with Ph.D., 11 admitted to the Ph.D. program

July Summer University course on "Issues and Resources for the Study of Medieval Central Europe" jointly organized with the Center for Medieval Studies (Prague) and CARA of the Medieval Academy of America (Medieval News 2.1 [October 2000]: 3)

2000-01

September 25 students start the MA course

September-May Public lecture series on "Reading the Scripture: Medieval Interpretations of the Bible" (Annual 8 [2002]: 203-70 and 291-2)

October Workshop on "Medieval Culture Presented in Millennial Exhibitions"

October International workshop on "The Eucharist in Theology and Philosophy. Issues of Doctrinal History in East and West, from the Patristic Age to the Reformation," Benedictine Abbey, Tihany (Medieval News 2.2 [April 2001]: 2)

February Interdisciplinary workshop on "Oral History of the Middle Ages: The Spoken Word in Context." Published as G. Jaritz, M. Richter, ed., Oral History of the Middle Ages. The Spoken World in Context (CEU Medievalia 3 and Medium Aevum Quotidianum Sonderband XII, Krems and Budapest, 2001)

April Spring field trip: Croatia and Dalmatia (Annual 8 [2002]: 284-5)

June 24 students graduate with MA, 1 with certificate of attendance, 1 with Ph.D., 10 admitted to the Ph.D. program

July Summer University course on "Religious

Identity and Syncretism" (Medieval News 3.1 [October 2001]: 3)

2001-02

September 26 students start the MA course

October-March Public lecture series co-organized with the Department of History on "Renaissance, Revival and Enlightenment: Concepts in Historical Perspective"

February Interdisciplinary Workshop on "Religion and Rulership in the Middle Ages" in co-operation with the International Association for the Study of Rulership "Majestas" (Medieval News 3.2 [April 2002]: 1, 4, conference volume in prep.)

April Spring field trip: Western Hungary and Austria (Annual 9 [2003] forthcoming)

June 20 students graduate with MA, 2 with certificate of attendance, 4 with Ph.D., 8 admitted to the Ph.D. program

July Summer University course on "People and Nature in Historical Perspective" (Medieval News 3.2 [April 2002]: 5-6, and 4.1 [October 2002]: 2-3)

2002-03

September 22 students start the MA course

February Interdisciplinary workshop on "Segregation, Integration and Assimilation in Medieval Towns" (Medieval News 4.2 [May 2003] pp. 2-3; published proceedings in preparation.)

April Spring field trip: Styria, Aquileia, Venice

(Annual 8, pp. 284-5)

May the department hosts the 6th Annual Congress of the Mediterranean Studies Association on "Central Europe and the Mediterranean"

June 20 students graduate with MA, 3 with certificate of attendance, 6 with Ph.D.; 5 admitted to the Ph.D. program

June-July Summer University course on "The Uses and Abuses of the Middle Ages in Central and Eastern Europe" (See Medieval News 4.1 [October 2002]: 5) and Alumni Meeting

July 17 Symposium planned at Leeds to mark the 10th anniversary of the IMC and Medieval Studies at CEU: "Is Pan-European Medieval Studies a Chimera or a Coming Reality?" (Medieval News 4.2 [April 2003]: 1)

A bouquet for Annabella, 1998